ALSOK considers distributing profits to shareholders to be one of the management’s top priorities. ALSOK's basic policy is to distribute the results of its business operations while ensuring retention of adequate operating funds.

As the consolidated financial results for fiscal year ended March 31, 2007 were favorable, in response to the constant support from our shareholders, we will revise the year-end dividend upward for fiscal year ended March 31, 2007, from 8.50 yen per share of the previous forecast to 11.50 yen, an increase of 3 yen. Since we have already distributed 8.50 yen for the interim dividend, the annual dividend for the fiscal year will be 20 yen.
